

GLOSSOP
MUSIC
FESTIVAL

THE TROUT

11 DECEMBER 2015 • 7.30PM

Parish Church, Old Glossop

TICKETS ARE FREE AND AVAILABLE ON THE DOOR

We will be accepting donations (cash or cheque) after the concert to reflect what audience members felt the concert was worth

UNRESERVED SEATING

RESERVED SEATING available at the front of the church for Friends of Glossop Music Festival

For details of how to become a Friend please visit the website or call Ron Astles on 01457 857015 or email ron.astles@ctaweb.co.uk

A programme of Schubert and Schumann, featuring piano solos, the song cycle
'Frauenliebe und Leben' and 'The Trout' Piano Quintet

Claire Surman - Soprano

Viv McLean - Piano

Mia Cooper - Violin

Joel Hunter - Viola

Sarah McMahon - Cello

Ronan Dunne - Double Bass

www.glossopmusicfestival.org.uk

FUTURE EVENTS

7 February 2016 at 3pm
'The Enlightened Music Maker'
Parish Church, Old Glossop
Music from the 18th Century by the renowned baroque ensemble 'Musica Domestica'

Kate Semmens - Soprano
Steven Devine - Harpsichord
Matthew Truscott - Violin
Becky Truscott - Cello

5 March 2016 at 7.30pm
Schubert's Winterreise (D.911)
Parish Church, Old Glossop
A 'Winter Journey' through Schubert's profound setting of twenty-four poems by Wilhelm Müller, accompanied by visual imagery, artwork and surtitles

James McOran-Campbell - Baritone
James Southall - Piano
Alexander Anderson-Hall - Artwork and Projections

20-25 June: The 2016 Summer Festival
Full details to be announced.
This exciting six-day Festival will include evening concerts, workshops and schools' concerts featuring over 200 pupils

The programme for the week includes:

- 20-22 Nine Workshops and Concerts in Schools, led by Matthew Sharp with the Glossop Festival String Orchestra
- 22 Informal Concert in a Pub
- 23 Mozart Piano Concerto No. 21 with Viv McLean and Beethoven's 5th Symphony
- 24 Shostakovich Cello Concerto No. 1 with Matthew Sharp and Beethoven's 3rd Symphony
- 25 Operatic Gala Concert with Claire Surman and Friends accompanied by the Glossop Festival Orchestra